Culinary is an Art. A Chef masters flavors, textures, smells, & shapes like an artist combines colors, lines and forms with their medium.

Chef Kendra A. Wilcox is a renowned Celebrity Chef that has created her unique healthy gourmet cuisine. After listening to a lecture on Telecommunications Era and how it would transform lifestyles the Pell grant student from Boston University and Harvard Entrepreneurial School headed out West to establish Kendra's Kitchen Natural Foods, Inc. and guide for Boojum Expeditions, Adventure Travel on Horseback with Buddhist Wranglers in 1989. She was then put on an annual retainer salary to serve as the Personal Chef for Ralph & Ricky Lauren. After 4.5 years of cooking in hunting camp gaud for the Lauren Family she branched out and started Kendra's Kitchen Catering Company, www.KendrasKitchen.com. The Client list is very impressive from the Smithsonian Institute to Leucadia Financial. For the past 29 years, she is one of the few Celebrity Chefs that is still hands on with food preparation & style. Kendra currently promotes agritourism, advocated with the Colorado Dept of Agriculture with branding the Colorado Proud Logo and was selected as Chef member for the Governor's Symposiums/Potato Growers Association. The Celebrity Chef introduced the environmental ranching of Yak to North America and was Guest Chef for pick of the crop at Farmer's Markets throughout the state and advocates the Valley Food Partnership. Most recent accomplishment she was a semi finalist for World Chef Competition at the Telluride Wine Festival 2016. Kendra is one of the few woman chefs for Executive Chef Services www.ecs.com which is headquartered out of Aspen, Colorado.
